I Still Have a Praise!

HABAKKUK 3:17–19 • NRSV

REV. DR. DEBBIE SAN PABLO | PASTOR

THE BIG IDEA

Even when blessings are missing and life is uncertain, God remains worthy of praise. He is our source of joy and strength.

FROM THE SERMON / 3 BIBLICAL TRUTHS

1 When the Blessings Are Missing, God Is Still Worthy

Habakkuk 3:17 — Habakkuk describes failed crops and empty stalls. Even when life's necessities are threatened, God's goodness and faithfulness remain.

2 Yet I Will Rejoice!

Habakkuk 3:18 — Habakkuk chooses to rejoice in the Lord despite his troubles. True joy comes from knowing God, not from having an easy life.

3 The Lord Is My Strength!

Habakkuk 3:19 — God gives Habakkuk sure footing, like a deer on rocky ground. He can strengthen us to keep moving through uncertainty.

3 THINGS TO CARRY WITH YOU / IN EVERYDAY WORDS

01 Praise God for who He is.
His goodness does not disappear when blessings do.

02 Choose joy in the Lord.
You can trust God even on a difficult day.

03 Take your next step with God.
Ask Him for strength when the road is hard.
